Employee Payout and Leave Policy

This document outlines the guidelines related to employee payouts, leave entitlement, document submissions, and associated conditions. All employees are expected to adhere to these policies during their tenure with the organization.

---

1. Payout Conditions

- Voluntary Exit within 20 Days:
  If a new hire resigns within 20 days of joining on their own accord, they will not be eligible for any payout.

- Background Verification Failure:
  No payout will be made to candidates whose background verification fails at any stage.

- Leave Encashment:

  - Leave encashment applies only to earned leaves (EL).

  - Encashment will be processed in April of the following financial year.

  - Payout will be calculated based on the basic salary.

- No Payout on Exit:
  Employees exiting the organization are not eligible for any payout against unused leaves.

---

2. Leave Policy

- Earned Leave (EL):

  - An employee earns 1 EL per month, provided they work for the complete month.

- EL can be availed by informing at least 4 days in advance.

- Sick Leave (SL):

  - Employees become eligible for 4 sick leaves per year after their confirmation post the probation period.

  - ELs also begin to accumulate from the month of confirmation.

- Emergency Leave Communication:
  If an employee is unable to inform the company about leave due to an emergency, they must send an email on the next working day.

  For half day employees must serve 5 hrs.

3. Exit and Final Documentation

- Relieving Letter:
  Will be provided on the next day after the employee's last working day.

- Experience Letter:
  Issued only after the Full and Final Settlement is completed.

  No Experience letter will be Provided if the employee less then 4 months.
  No internship letter will be provided if the candidate leave the internship before its completion date.

4. Onboarding Requirements

- Document Submission:
  All necessary documents must be submitted prior to onboarding.
  Failure to do so will result in a delay of the onboarding date.

  All the employee document must be manage on HR mail drive folder and name the folder as employee name.

5. Increment

- Increments are reviewed and applied annually based on individual performance.
- Employees joining on or before the 15th of a month will receive the increment in the same month; those joining after the 15th will receive it from the following month.